From bankrupt to brilliant with the Solo & Smart system

Tax is the number 1 silent killer

Steve has been in business for over 15 years, although just over 6 years ago he found himself in substantial debt to the Australian Tax Office. Despite his best efforts to save money, he constantly found himself using his tax savings to fix equipment and other expenses. Without any other options, Steve was forced into bankruptcy.

Systems will set you free

Steve knew there had to be a better way to manage tax and he discovered the answer when he came across Solo & Smart. It was exactly what he needed because it meant the whole process of saving money for tax was completely automated. He discovered that Solo & Smart made it incredibly easy to save money and says it was the best business decision he has made.

Since Solo & Smart Steve has experienced “astronomical change.”

- Increased account savings
- Up to date on BAS
- Money ready for tax
- Improved cashflow
- Freedom to enjoy family time

The freedom of money management

Tax is often the biggest downfall to running your own business when it's not managed properly. Having a system in place can remove the risk of getting a tax bill you can't pay.

Up until three years ago, Steve was living week to week and catching up, now, Solo and Smart has allowed him to stay on top of his cash flow and money management in a simple, organised and consistent way.

Improved lifestyle with Solo & Smart

Solo & Smart exists to empower success for individuals like Steve.

When cash flow is automated, and savings taken care of, pressures and stress levels lighten and the dream of creating a balanced lifestyle is achievable.

“I've been in business for 15 years and Solo & Smart has finally enabled me to save money. It's the best business decision I've ever made, and I haven't looked back ever since.”
